

Studentcentrum
International Office

International students

- would you like to work in Sweden after you complete your studies?

Meet with and listen to Rodrigo Garay from Working for Change and Katarina Önell from TNS Sifo, who will talk about career possibilities in Sweden for international academics.

Date/time: Monday 14 May, 12¹⁵-13³⁰
Place: Hörsal B in the Lindell Hall,
Social Sciences Building

Working for Change is a national conference and recruitment fair taking place in Stockholm 4-5th December 2012, aiming to seek, attract and recruit international academics in and to Sweden. Furthermore, the conference is aiming to be a platform for discussion on how Swedish companies can manage the demographic challenges and the opportunities entailed by increased migration and cultural diversity.*

For further information, please contact:
Per A. Nilsson, director of the International Office, Student Services
e-mail: per.nilsson@adm.umu.se