Summer School 2014 in Copenhagen Physical Activity and Sport: Current Discourses and Practices from a Human and Social Science Perspective

International Summer School for Young Researchers – Course for PhD Students

DATE

18-22 August, 2014 – Welcome dinner 17 August

VENUE

Department of Nutrition, Exercise and Sports
University of Copenhagen, Denmark

The Summer School provides a space to share information on research, theories and methods as well as to exchange ideas and knowledge about current tendencies and “hot issues” in the multiple arenas of physical activities and sports.

The Summer School will provide a forum which enables communication, networks and cooperation among the participants, students as well as lecturers.

In addition, there will be workshops and panel discussions on relevant themes. All students will have the opportunity to present their own projects and get feedback from experts and other students.

ECTS

4 ECTS. Students willing to present their PhD project during the course including 5-7 page paper (30 min. presentation) may be awarded with one additional ECTS point (=5 ECTS points total).

MEAL FEE

For all participants 500 DKK including 5 lunches, 3 dinners, coffee breaks, entrances.

COURSE FEE

No fee for PhD students under the Open Market in Denmark and NOVAparters. Other participants are to pay a course fee of 150 EUR.

TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION

Each student must pay and arrange their own travel and accommodation in Copenhagen during the course.
