

Thinking Critically about Psychology

Power, Gender, and Psychological Practice

A one-day conference for psychology students and practitioners

Friday, 31st May, 2013

Hörsal E, Humanisthuset (Humanities Building), 8:45 – 17:00.

Programme

- What is the critical psychology movement?* 9:00
Eva Magnusson, professor of psychology and gender studies, Umeå University.
Jeanne Marecek, professor emerita of psychology, Swarthmore College.
- Medication in culture, mind and body: ADHD drugs and children's experiences.* 9:30
Aina Olsvold, PhD, licensed psychologist, University of Oslo.
- Eating problems in a cultural light: Lessons from three life stories.* 10:45
Johanna Stenberg, MA, psychologist, Umeå University.
- Dividing lines between feminist critique and feminist practice in the narratives of therapists who work with women who have been physically abused.* 11:10
Julia Narvola & Fanny Skarin, MA, psychologists, Umeå University.
- Lunch 12:15–13:30*
- Critical perspectives on therapeutic culture.* 13:30
Ole Jacob Madsen, PhD, senior lecturer, University of Oslo.
- Theories of depression: Explanations or justifications?* 15:00
Stefan Björk, PhD candidate, Umeå University.
- Conflicted disciplinary self-images in Swedish academic Psychology: what can we learn by listening to those who teach us?* 15:20
Robert Adebahr, MA, psychologist, Umeå University.

Genus – stark forskningsmiljö i samarbete med Umeå centrum för genusstudier och
Institutionen för psykologi
Eva Magnusson, +46-90-786 97 03, eva.magnusson@psy.umu.se
Stefan Björk, +46-90-786 78 86, stefan.bjork@psy.umu.se