

CROSSING DISCIPLINES

Celebrating 50 Years of Gender Research at
Umeå University

14-15 October, 2026

14 October

11.30 – Welcome!

Vice-Chancellor, Tora Holmberg

12.30 – 13.45: Lunch

13.45 -14.15: Introductory talk: Why gender research is not interdisciplinary, Sara Edenheim

14.30 - 15.00: Being a PhD-student at the Gender Research School, Kerstin Edin and Josefin Olsson

15.00 – 15.30: Coffee and refreshments

15.30: Panel discussion with supervisors at the research school

Anna Hegardt Källén: Museology, Department of Culture and Media Studies, Faculty of Arts and Humanities

Isabel Goicolea: Public Health, Department of Epidemiology and Global Health, Faculty of Medicine

Henrik Björklund: Computing Science, Department of Computing Science, Faculty of Science and Technology

Göran Bostedt: Umeå School of Business, Economics and Statistics, Faculty of Social Sciences

17.00: Drinks reception

15 October: 08.30–10.00 Parallel Sessions

HUM.F.214: Bodies, Health and Feminist Imaginaries

HUM.G.211: Critical Perspectives on Masculinities and Crises

HUM.G217: Gendered Futures: Technology, Work and Organizations

HUM.G.219: Institutional Power and the Boundaries of Belonging

10.00 -10.30 Coffee and refreshments

15th October: 10.30–12.00 Parallel Sessions

HUM.G.211: Feminist Perspectives on Violence, Agency and Resistance

HUM.G.217: Gender, Power and the Politics of Resources

HUM.G.219: Gendered Subjectivities Across Place and Context

RUM FÖR LÄRANDE:

Roundtable Discussion: Making Space for Girls' Experiences: The Limits of Planning

Scan the QR code for more information about the sessions and presenters.

UMEÅ UNIVERSITY